2022 NACM Annual Conference Scholarships

On March 26, 2022, the GCCA Executive Board approved four scholarships for GCCA members to attend the 2022 NACM Annual Conference, July 10-14, 2022, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

To qualify for a scholarship, the GCCA member must have been in good standing for at least the past three (3) years and have obtained their 40-Hour Court Administration Certificate.

The scholarship will cover the early-bird registration cost for the 2022 NACM Annual Conference. Travel and all other costs associated with the conference will be at the member's expense.

To apply, qualified GCCA members must contact Treasurer and Scholarship Committee Chair, Timothy Ezell. Please include your qualifying information, background on your position, a demonstration of the need for the scholarship, and whether you or anyone from your court has received a previous scholarship award. Applications must be submitted by the close of business on April 8, 2022.

Scholarship Committee Protocol

Diversity in the awarding of the scholarship shall be the goal of the committee, diversity as to court, area or region of the state, race, sex, and religion. Scholarships shall be awarded upon proper application to the Scholarship Committee. The Scholarship Committee shall consist of the officers of GCCA, with the treasurer acting as chair.
